

Community of Reason

A Center for Free Thought

We meet in Room 301, Haag Hall, University of Missouri, Kansas City (NW Corner 52nd Street and Rockhill Road). Parking Structure, 4th Level, SW corner of 52nd Street and Rockhill Road, walk across breezeway, turn right into Haag Room 301.

Sunday Events for May 2009

Informal Gathering at 12:30 p.m. - All events begin at 1:00 p.m.

May 3rd “From Preachers Grandson to Union Organizer”

Bill Clause

Celebrate International Workers Day with Gospel Songs, Union Songs, and Atheist Songs and stories.

Skeptical Religious Studies - Haag Hall, Room 307

10am - Ancient Mediterranean Religions (Mesopotamia – The Search for Eternal Life)

11:15am - Early Christianity (The Early Christian Mission)

May 10th “Christian Mythology and Brazil: The Role of Religion in Shaping the History of the Country of Carnival”

Daniel Conceicao, PH.D candidate in economics

We'll be looking at how Christianity has influenced the evolution of Brazilian society from the time of its discovery to the current days.

Skeptical Religious Studies - Haag Hall, Room 307

10am - Ancient Mediterranean Religions (Mesopotamia- The Early Christian Mission)

11:15am - Religions of the Axial Age (The Vedantic Solution)

May 17th “Does the U.S. want the UN; We Talk the Talk, Do We Walk the Walk?”

Pat Kenoyer, PH.D., psychology

Skeptical Religious Studies - Haag Hall, Room 307

10am - Ancient Mediterranean Religions (Ancient Concepts of the Divine)

11:15am - Early Christianity (The Christianization of the Roman Empire)

May 24th “Green Impact Zone: Making Our Neighborhoods Sustainable”

Bob Housh, Director, Metropolitan Center

Through the help of Congressman Emanuel Cleaver, Kansas City will be focusing a tremendous 1st-of-its-kind effort to make an urban core neighborhood truly sustainable. This effort will impact the economy, the environment, and the social well-being of its inhabitants. Come find out how.

Skeptical Religious Studies - Haag Hall, Room 307

10am - Ancient Mediterranean Religions (The Gods of Syria-Palestine)

11:15am - Religions of the Axial Age (The One and the Many)

May 31st “Chasing the Moons Shadow”

Jackie (Beucher) Marsh, International Astronomical League Officer for 13 Years and Jen Winter, NASA Solar System Ambassador

Astronomical tours travel the world to observe total eclipses of the Sun, last year in Mongolia and Siberia; in July this will happen again in China and the Pacific Islands. Come and hear about the lure of standing in the shadow of the Moon.

Skeptical Religious Studies - Haag Hall, Room 307

10:00 a.m. – “Life of Brian” (the movie) plus miscellaneous points of interest

WEEKEND POTLUCKS AND RESTAURANT HOPPING - Call for time and location